

LSL Life – Genesis

For the Love of Animals: Genesis talks about her dreams of becoming an animal rescuer.

Sophie: [Dog barking] Awoo!

Sophie: When I grow up, I would like to be an animal rescuer. I want to help all the animals I see on the streets and get a big car or a van, and take them all with me, and I'd go to a vet and I could get them all the shots that they need and shower them, but with like, protective suits so I wouldn't get any fleas or ticks on me.

Sophie: He's saying, "I love you" to you guys.
